Coach, is something wrong!

Tell it like it is!

Teachers Revolve Around The Students

It's impolite to whisper in public!

What! Out of class again ...

We Dedicate The

1970 Pinnacle To Miss Ann DeLoach

We dedicate this Yearbook to her because of her notable accomplishments above and beyond the teacher's call of duty. One could not begin to count the hours she has dedicated to this cause. Her unselfish spirit in the interest of Vinemont is demonstrated by the manner in which she performs her numerous tasks. Whatever activities Vinemont undertakes, Miss DeLoach is always there supporting them and encouraging others to do the same. Miss DeLoach is a fine person of strong and tested character - one of the most wonderful persons in the whole wide world. She gives much and asks for nothing in return. She has helped make our stay at Vinemont a fulfilled and memorable time. A better friend than this, no person has.

Having trouble Kenny???

Think about it!!!

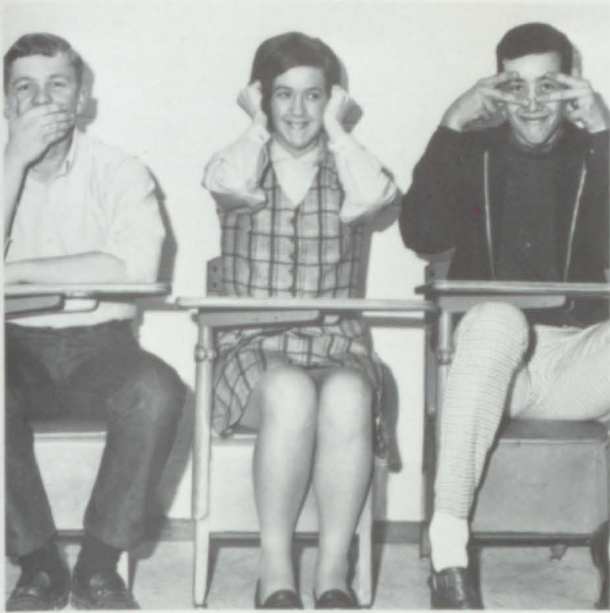

Our day has come.

Just faking it ...

Action class!!

STUDENT LIFE

I must live with myself; I must be fit for myself to know.

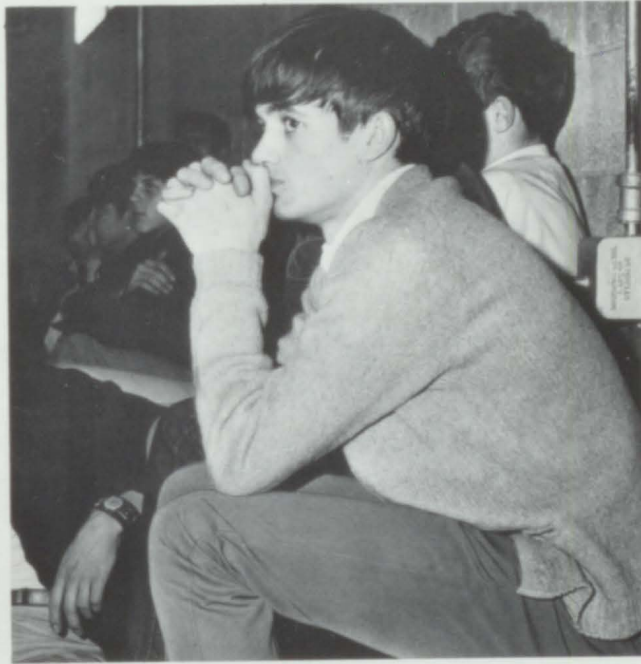

Hey, man!!!

Hold on!

But, how can I be sure?

Memories

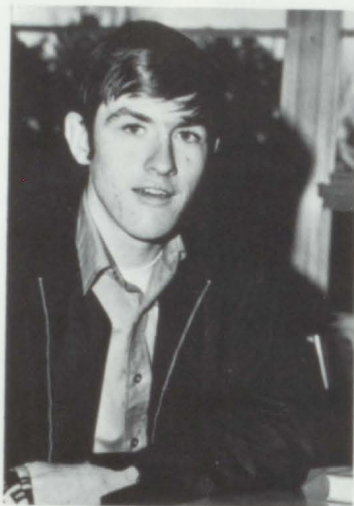

STUDENT LIFE

P.E. provides fun for Juniors.

"But I didn't do it. I wasn't even there."

"Maybe I should have cut."

What will tomorrow bring?

Better you should smile than have an ugly mug in the Pinnacle.

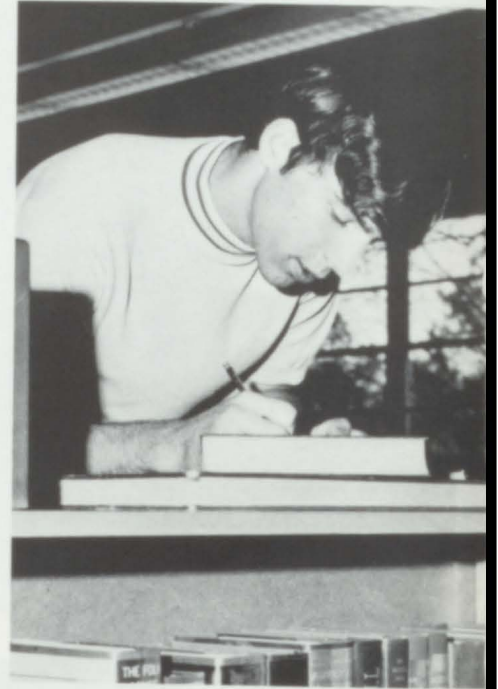

Love

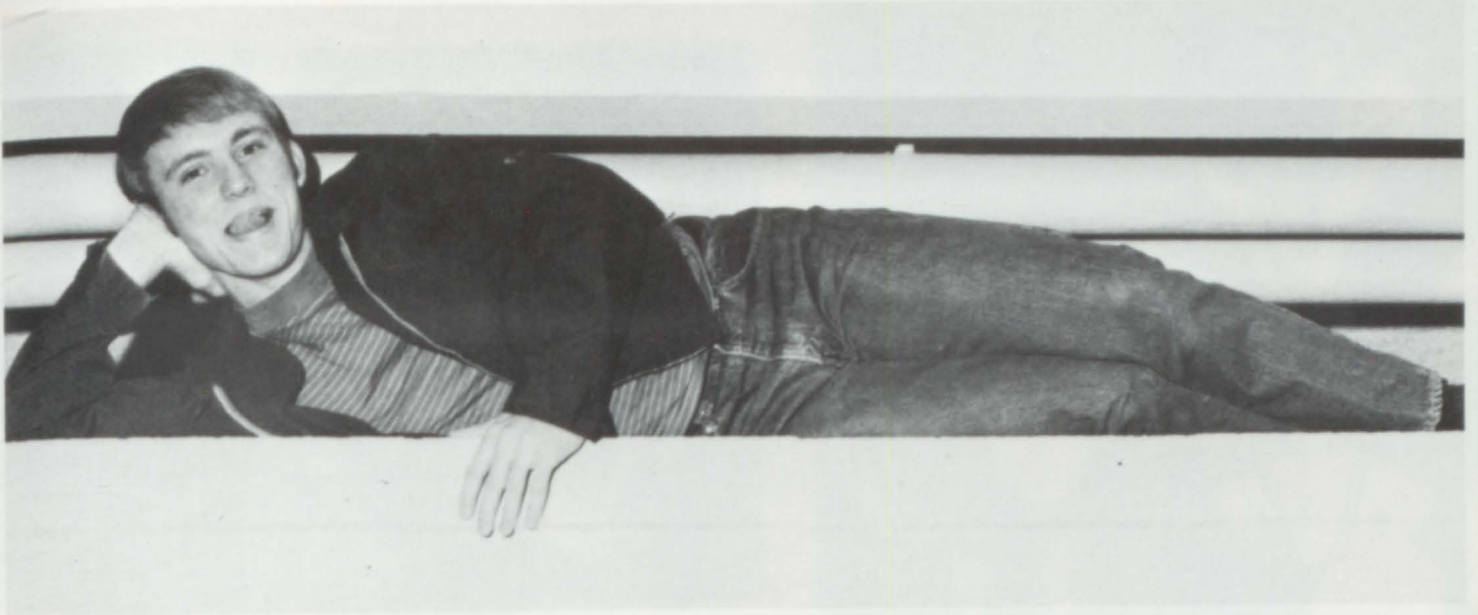

An intimate whisper. The tender touch of a familiar hand. Gentle chidings. A face, present always. A kiss to be savored. Eyes reflecting a very personal message. Mutual hopes, held so close and so high. A cherished grin. That special bench. Thoughts never voiced, but understood. Sweet remembrances of a first date. Companionship. Precious mementos. Laughter, soft as summer air. Thus we grow to know one another.

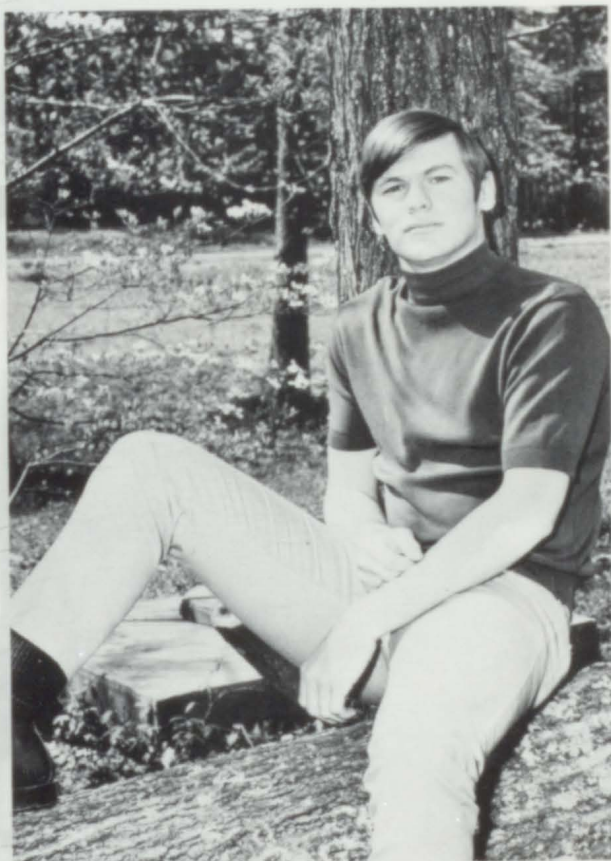

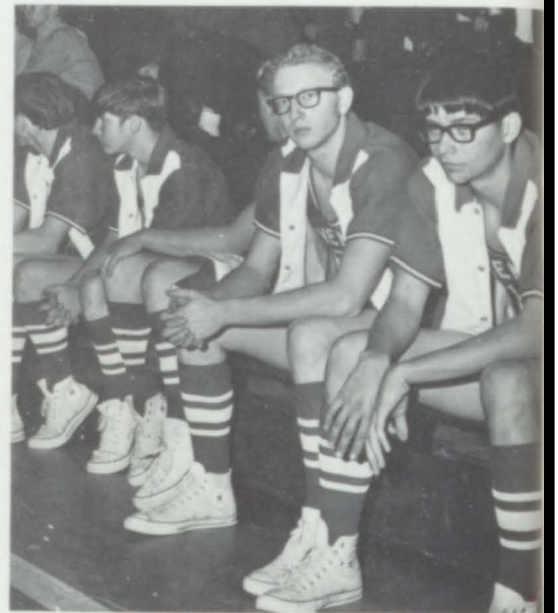

Today we are young: our lives are filled with special songs still to be sung . . . hearts - still to be given . . . faith in ourselves and in our world - unshaken. But when our songs and aspirations have been forgotten . . . and when our faith is worn with age, we will remember these golden days and . . . THE NATURE OF YOUTH.

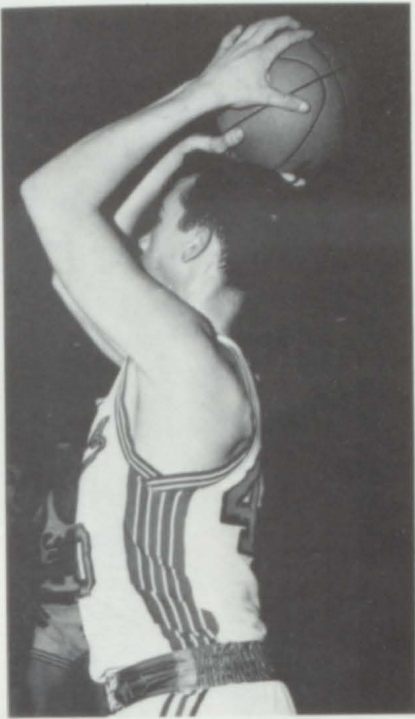

Happiness is found in simple things — a sparkling laugh, a refreshing tear, an understanding smile . . .
